DESERETEVENING NEWS | BARBERS FOLLOW THE COAL BARONS.

After October 1. They Will Advance the Prices of Tonsorial Work.

HAIR CUT COES UP TO 35 CENTS

Union Made the Increase Last Night and Secretary Tells Reason Why-"Everything Else is High."

The individual with the polished dome of intellect that is as bare as the proverbial billiard ball, has a smile coming while the man with Paderewskifootball locks must delve his digits into the utmost recesses of his trowsers' pockets for an extra dime after he brings his luxuriant locks under the shears of the barber. The man with the beautiful tangled crop of whiskers also must pay tribute to the extent of 25 cents if he wants to look civilized.

The Barbers' union has spoken. On and after Oct. I haircutting will be 35 cents, singeing, shampooing, face massage and other k'ndred tonsorial lux-uries will be charged at the same price, white whisker trimming will be one

The mandate has gone forth, and on and after Saturday prices are to be raised, but there are doubts about hair being raised after that date. It is anticipated accordingly that after this announcement there will be a big rush on the barbers' shops of Salt Lake tomorrow in order to take advantage of the last day under the old rate,

The tonsorial artists of Salt Lake in solemn conclave assembled have de-termined that they are working too cheaply. They argue that everything has gone up in price and that they too should fall in line and scrape an extra percentage out of the common people and the people who are not common, For years past divers knights of the razor who have pitched their tents ad-jacent to the hotels and the haunts of the tourist have been getting 35 cents for a haircut; the balance of the profession is jealous and the move to make this altitudinous fate unanimous has been carried by acclamation. A total of nine barber shops in Salt Lake have always charged 35 cents, the rest now propose to fall into line out of "shear" recessity. As one wielder of the lather brush put it this morning, "Salt Lake is the cheapest barber's town in the country. In Logan, Provo, Idaho Falls and all the coast cities the universal charge for a haircut is 35 cents. Right here in Salt Lake a hod-carrier can make more Salt Lake a hod-carrier can make more in a day than can a barber. The hod-carrier works only eight hours a day while on Saturday we work 16. This raise in price means that each man who gets his hair cut once a month pays $1.20 more a year. He will not miss this while on the other hand we will make enough to pay the rent out of the advance. Everything has gone up in price. Our supplies cost us more than they did, laundry prices have advanced, and during the past few years the man who gets a shave and a hairthe man who gets a shave and a hair-cut has got more in the way of clean towels and other things than he ever did before at the same price.

"Then the price of living has advanced in every department. have to pay more for our flour and coal than we did last month. To pay rent, keep extra help and a boy to brush customers down takes money, Really the barber business is one of the worst paid in existence today."

Such in brief is the argument advanced, while the man with the luxuriant thatch is figuring on walking down town and back home in preference to paying car fare and thereby come out even on the raise in prices.

Amusements

The venerable "Texas Steer" came back last night and while a fair sized turnout as it has been accustomed to nearing its end. Last night's presentation was interesting on two accounts. It gave us our first glimpse of Harry Emery, an old Salt Lake actor, in the part of Marverick Brander, and it preminister to Dahomey. Mr. Emery pass-ed through the ordeal successfully, and drew the usual amount of laughter out of the many "fat" opportunities the part affords. Mr. Bray is always artistic, and he plays the part of the would-be statesman today just as Hoyt trained him in it years ago. The others in the cast ranked as fair, the leading feature being the Bossy of Miss Stock ton. The Salt Lake engagement was limited to two performances, last night and yesterday afternoon's matinee.

Frank Daniels and his big company arrived from Colorado this morning. He and his wife, the once well known actress, Bessie Sansom, who retired some time since, are at the Knutsford. Miss Sallie Fisher and her father and mother are at the Wilson. Mr. Fisher ran over from his post at Glenwood Springs to be present at his daughter's appearance in her old home. Mrs. Fisher travels with her. Miss Fisher is in the best of health and spirits, though paturally somewhat excited over the prospect of facing a Salt Lake audience for the first time since she entered professional life. The business manager of the company is Mr. Louis Nethersole, brother of the famous actress, Miss Olga Nethersole, and formerly with Henry Miller and Margaret Anglin luring their Salt Lake visit. The Daniels' company opens its engagement at the theater "The Office Boys" and the house is already practically sold out. The composer of this musical comedy, Ludwig Englander, expected to come to poment, but was detained in New York by Mr. Dillingham, who wanted him to be present at the opening two other musical works which he has written "The Two Roses," in Miss Fritzj Scheff is starring, and "The Madcap Princess," Lulu Glaser's new work. Our musicians, who had been looking for Mr. Englander, will regret of to have had the opportunity to greet him.

MRS, THOMAS' CONCERT.

The usual Conference concert night given by the Tabernacle choir has, with commendable generosity, this fall been reserved for its chief soloist, Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward. It is to take place on Saturdy night, Oct. 8. Mrs. Edward is also fortunate in securing splendid ald in the person of Mr. Hugh W.

Dougall, the young baritone recently returned from Europe after a four years' course of study. In addition to the solo work of the two artists will be the Tabernacle choir, great organ, Mr. Skeiton, violinist, and a string Mr. Skeiton, violinist, and a string quartet, all under the direction of Prof. Stephens, with Prof. McClellan as accompanist. A rare treat is assured to all music lovers.
